Banul beach

Banul Beach is a beautiful place in the Philippines. White sand here is washed by crystal clear aquamarine waters, from which dark sheer cliffs "grow".

Beach description

Banul is one of the best beaches on the protected island of Coron. Solitude allows you to fully enjoy the beauty of the unique Philippine nature. . The picturesque and comfortable coastline complements the vibrant and diverse underwater world. The beach offers unique opportunities not only for relaxing by the water, but also for diving.

The location of the beach explains the lack of many standard tourist amenities here. Of the elements of infrastructure on the shore, you can find only arbors for relaxation. You can arrive on the island of Coron from the neighboring island of Busuang or from Palawan by boat.

When is the best time to go?

The peak season in Philippines lasts from December to May. It is arid and sunny at this time, the temperature rises no higher than +32

Average temperature day and night in Banul Beach

Some beautiful seas you can visit.

Livadia Beach

One of the most popular beaches in the Far East is the beach in Livadia, which owes its name to the neighboring village of the same name, which is located next to Livadia Lake. Like its Crimean namesake, this beach is famous for its clean white sand and cozy enclosed bays, developed infrastructure, beautiful panoramic views, great opportunities for an interesting beach vacation.

Shamora Beach

Shamora is the largest, cleanest and most popular beach near Vladivostok. The name is given in the 70s, Lazurnaya Bay, was not widely spread among the residents of the Primorsky Region. By many indicators, the local beach is among the top ten beaches in Russia. The unique landscape of the Ussuri Bay attracts vacationers not only from the Far East.

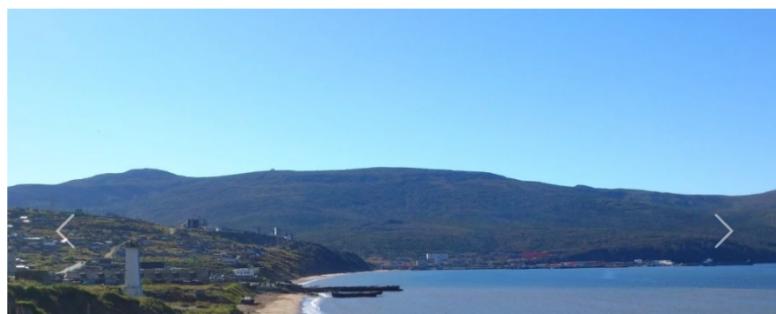

Triozerie Bay Beach

Triozerie Bay is located forty kilometers east from Nakhodka, and is famous for its one and a half kilometer beach, covered with white sand, and a crystal clear sea of azure color. The bay got its name due to three freshwater lakes, located in vicinity.

Kungasny Cape Beach

Kungasny Cape Beach in Vladivostok is a vivid example of how from an unattractive place on the coast you can create a beautiful recreation area, impressive cleanliness of the coast and developed infrastructure. It is located almost in the center of the city, in the bukhta Bezymyannaya of Amur Bay, and in recent years, it has become one of the most beloved beach by locals and guests.

Chituvai Beach

Chituvai is located in the city of Nakhodka and is almost always filled with visitors. Musatov Bay, where this beautiful sandy beach is located, is protected on all sides by hills from strong winds, the sea is always calm and warms up perfectly in the summer season. You can get to the beach easily by public transport, and from some areas just by walking. Among disadvantages - not very convenient entrance to the sea, tight parking, and lack of familiar infrastructure as well as garbage left by negligent tourists.

Wasaga beach

Wasaga is a long beach on the shores of Lake Huron, Toronto, the Province of Ontario. Nearby settlements: Tiny, Clearview and Collingwood. It's considered the most popular among all freshwater resorts in the world. The length of the coastline is 14 km, which offers excellent panoramic views of Georgian Bay and the mountains.

B. South

Sao beach

Sao Beach is considered to be the most beautiful and famous beach of a large island and Vietnam itself, if not all of Asia. And according to world estimates, the beach is rated quite high. This place is no worse than Long beach, except perhaps less more than twice. And the beauty of the local species is in no way inferior to Ong Lang Beach: the same untouched nature, but more developed infrastructure.

Photos

Ong Lang beach

Ong Lang Beach is the exact opposite of the nearest town, Duong Dong, where life is "boiling" literally. Here, the natural element completely captures the whole atmosphere: the sound of waves, rocky terrain, clear water, white sand and wild vegetation. Everything looks as if a person's hand was not at all attached to this resort. Naturalness, peace and peace are the main terms that characterize Ong Lang Beach.

Photos

Long beach

Long beach is the name that speaks for itself. This is almost 20 kilometers of the cleanest beach area. Belongs to the category of places of rest from a series of "most-most" as it is the longest, most beautiful and most popular. Moreover, such an opinion is formed not only among professional critics from the tourism industry, but also among ordinary tourists who in their reviews really say how it really is. Here you can appreciate not only the territory of the beach, but also the ocean - it is clean, calm and quite warm water surface.

Photos

Ganh Dau beach

Ganh Dau Beach is a romantic beach located on the northwest coast of Phu Quoc Island, 30 km from the island's capital, Zyong Zong. Gang Dau Beach can be reached by an asphalt road leading east from the fishing village of the same name Gang Dau.

Photos

Vung Bau beach

Vung Bau Beach is one of the last wild beaches of Phu Quoc. It is located in the northwest of the island, washed by the waters of the Gulf of Thailand in the South China Sea. Vung Bau is a beautiful crescent-shaped beach. Water in this part of the island of an unusual sapphire color turns Vung Bau into a paradise.

Photos

Bai Dai beach

Bai Dai Beach is little known among tourists. It is located about 20 km from Nha Trang, without reaching Kamran Airport. Earlier, in the 2000s, this territory was reserved for the military bases of Vietnam, and the beach was closed to the public. Bai Dai Beach on Phu Quoc Island is translated from Vietnamese as a long beach. And indeed it is: The length of the beach is about 17 km, it is located in a bay between the neighboring cities, Nha Trang and Kamran.

Photos

Bai Xep beach

Bai Xep Beach is located in a small fishing village near the town of Quinen. Distinctive features of the beach are crystal clear water and picturesque views. The beach is surrounded by green hills, and from the sea visible boats and islands in the distance. Unusual round boats with one oar await fishermen on the coastline.

Photos

Rach Vem beach

Rach Vem Beach is one of the most remote and least visited of all the beaches and bays on the island of Phu Quoc, however, Rach Vem Beach is one of the most calm, picturesque and intact parts of the island. The beach is long and narrow, the sea is bright turquoise with calm water and a smooth shallow entrance.

Photos

Khem beach

Khem Beach, also known as "Bai Kem", "Bai Khem", "Khem Beach" or "Cream Beach" is another of Phu Quoc's white sandy beaches located south of the more popular beach Sao in the city of An Toi. The use of the beach was previously limited to a military base, but since 2014 the restriction has been lifted. According to many sources, Khem beach is one of the most beautiful on the island of Phu Quoc, but it becomes such after 11.00, when the beach is freed by fish and seafood traders: of shrimp, anchovies, sea urchins, etc.

Photos

Vong beach

Vong Beach is probably the first beach that many tourists will see. After all, it is here that the majority of boats, ferries with those who wish to relax on the island of Phu Quoc arrive. The economic industry on the coast is constantly evolving, for which new piers are being built, therefore it is obvious that the beach will undergo more and more changes over time.
